Let's Start!

What should I take? Do you have suggestions? Any travel tips?

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can make suggestions.
- I can accept or reject an offer.
- I can thank people and respond to thanks.

With a partner:

- What are tips you would share with someone coming to your country?
- Which one do you think is important? Why?

Let's Explore!

Vanessa is all booked for Mexico! The travel agent shares some tips about traveling to Mexico.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Travel Agent: Okay, Ms. Wright. You are all booked for Mexico.

Vanessa: Great, thank you!

Travel Agent: May I offer you some tips about traveling to Mexico?

Vanessa: Yes, of course. That would be very helpful. Thanks!

Travel Agent: No problem. Shopping hours in big towns and cities start around 10 or 11 a.m., and continue to between 8 and 10 p.m.

Vanessa: Okay.

Travel Agent: Banks are open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in many cities, and some are even open Saturday mornings. HMBC opens from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. six days a week.

Vanessa: Okay, should I always carry money with me?

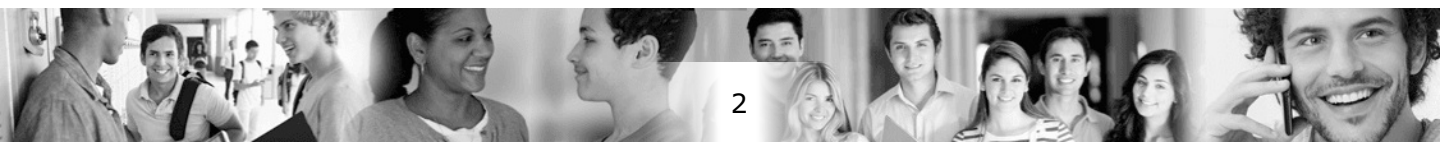

Travel Agent: Yes, but only carry small amounts. You should withdraw money from ATMs or go to currency exchange booths during the day.

Vanessa: An exchange bureau?

Travel Agent: It's a place where you can exchange money into the local currency.

Vanessa: Okay, thanks for the tip. Thanks for all your help!

Travel Agent: You're welcome. Enjoy Mexico!

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Being Polite

It is important to be polite when you talk with people. You can use the Simple Present tense when you thank people and respond to thanks.

There are many ways to be polite. When you talk to someone, the expressions you use show that you are being polite.

Two common expressions that show politeness are: please and thank you. Here is how you thank people and respond to thanks.

Thanking people	Thanks. Thank you (for) ... Thank you very/so much.
Responding to thanks	You're (very) welcome. It was my pleasure. No problem.

Examples:

• Chelsea: Thank you very much, Tom!
