

Instructor: ..... Date: .....

Learner: ..... Regional Branch: .....

Program: ..... Center: .....

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Vanessa has to write a formal e-mail to confirm her reservation.

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Ask a partner:

- Do you have to write formal e-mails for work or school?
- How are they different from casual e-mails?

Can Do Statements

- I can express possession using mine, yours, his, hers, etc.
- I can write a formal e-mail.
- I can talk about travel.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa has to send a formal e-mail to confirm her reservation. What matter* is she writing about?

* A "matter" is a situation or a topic.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing to confirm my reservation for the nights of August 20th to 29th at Laguna Hills Resort, Acapulco. I made a reservation using your website for a single room at the rate of $80.00 per night before taxes and fees, with my credit card. I also arranged for an airport pickup.

I am also interested in any guided tours you have available. Would you have any binoculars for our tour group? If not, we can bring ours. Also, does the resort have hairdryers in the rooms or should I bring mine? I would appreciate if you could e-mail me any information. If this reservation is not in your records, please contact me immediately.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Vanessa Wright

Let's Practice!

What do you include in a formal e-mail?

Instructions: Match the question on the left with the response on the right.

- |                                      |                                                                                                                   |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. How can you start a formal email? | a. I am writing to confirm my reservation for the nights of August 20th to 29th at Laguna Hills Resort, Acapulco. |
| 2. What is the e-mail about?         | b. Dear Sir or Madam:                                                                                             |
| 3. Is there any extra information?   | c. Vanessa Wright.                                                                                                |
| 4. How do you close a formal letter? | d. I also arranged for an airport pickup.                                                                         |
| 5. Who sent the letter?              | e. Thank you for your attention to this matter.                                                                   |

Let's Practice!

What's included in the e-mail reservation? Do you remember?

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use pickup, mine, ours, binoculars, hairdryers.

- Also, does the resort have _____ in the rooms or should I bring _____?
- Would you have any _____ for our tour group?
- If not, we can bring _____.
- I also arranged for an airport _____.

Extension Activity

Imagine you are Vanessa. You have to send a formal e-mail to a tour company to confirm a reservation.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Decide what kind of tour Vanessa is on.
- What day and time is the reservation for?
- Think of two questions you would ask the company.
- Write the formal e-mail.
- Share your e-mail with a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I write an e-mail using the correct format.

☐ ☐

I write complete sentences in my e-mail.

☐ ☐

I write using formal language.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- airport (noun): where planes fly into or out of e.g. We are flying into Acapulco's airport.
- pickup (noun): act of collecting someone at the airport
e.g. I also arranged for an airport pickup.
- to appreciate (verb): to be grateful for e.g. I would appreciate if you could e-mail me any information.
- binoculars (noun): a pair of special glasses you use to see distant objects
e.g. Also, would you have any binoculars for our tour group?
- attention (noun): when you look at something closely e.g. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Learning Points

Possessive Pronouns

We use possessive pronouns to talk about a specific person or thing that belongs to a person.

We use possessive pronouns depending on:

- number: singular (e.g.: mine) or plural (e.g.: ours)
- person: 1st person (e.g.: mine), 2nd person (e.g.: yours) or 3rd person (e.g.: his)
- gender: male (his) or female (hers)

| Number   | Person | Gender      | Possessive Pronouns |
|----------|--------|-------------|---------------------|
| singular | 1st    | male/female | mine                |
| singular | 2nd    | male/female | yours               |
| singular | 3rd    | male        | his                 |
| singular | 3rd    | female      | hers                |
| plural   | 1st    | male/female | ours                |
| plural   | 2nd    | male/female | yours               |
| plural   | 3rd    | male/female | theirs              |

