Learning Points

Making Purchases Over the Telephone

When you want to travel, you can buy your airplane tickets from the travel agent or over the telephone. You can use modals and Infinitives in your requests.

Here are a few common phrases and expressions you can use when you make a purchase over the telephone.

A purchase is an item you buy.

Saying what you want to buy	I would/I'd like to book a flight to ... A ... ticket from ... to ...
Asking for the price	How much is it/the ticket?
Paying for the purchase	Can I pay ... ? By ... My (credit card) number is ... The expiry date is ...
Arranging for the delivery	My address is ... My e-mail is ...

Examples:

- I'd like to book a flight to Sydney, Australia, please.
- A one-way ticket from Boston to Australia. How much is it?
- My credit card number is 2345 9066 5743. The expiry date is April 2023.
- My e-mail address is correybrown@mail.com.
