Let's Start!

Let's pack for the beach with Vanessa! What's she going to pack?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to go to the beach? Why or why not?
- What things do you take to the beach?

Can Do Statements

- I can express possession.
- I can talk about clothing and accessories.
- I can say what I want to do and/or would like to do.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa is packing for the beaches of Mexico! What's in her bag?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Hey, Vanessa! What are you doing? Still packing?
Vanessa: Yes, I am almost done. I have to pack for the beach though.
Sally: Can I help you?
Vanessa: Definitely! I don't know what I should or shouldn't bring.
Sally: For the beach?! You need swimsuits and bikinis!
Vanessa: I packed a few one-piece swimsuits and some bikinis. I packed my towels too.
Sally: Good. What about cover-ups?
Vanessa: Oh no!
Sally: Don't worry, you can borrow mine. Sunscreen? Sunglasses?
Vanessa: Check. Which bag should I take to the beach? There's this one or this?
Sally: This one. It looks like a beach bag. Do you have a blanket to lay on?
Vanessa: Oh right, I definitely want to tan in the sun.
Sally: Vanessa, I'd prefer you don't return looking like a lobster!

Learning Points

Possessive Adjectives and Pronouns

Possessive pronouns can take the place of nouns. You use possessive pronouns to talk about things that belong to someone.

You use possessive adjectives to describe nouns. They come before the noun.

I	Possessive Adjectives	Possessive Pronouns	Examples
I	my	mine	This is my bag. You can borrow mine.
You	your	yours	Is this your bag? That one is yours.
He	his	his	It's his towel. I have his.
She	her	hers	Her sunglasses are big. Is this hers?
We	our	ours	Our trip is next month. So is ours.
They	their	theirs	These aren't their swimsuits. Are they theirs?

Learning Points

At the Beach

When you go to the beach, you wear a different type of clothing. This type of clothing is called swimwear or beachwear. Remember that when you are referring to clothing or beach items, you use nouns.

Swimwear is the clothing you wear when in the water.

Beachwear is the clothing you wear at the beach, not in the water.

	Men	Women
Swimwear	swimsuit shorts/trunks	swimsuit * bikini tankini
Beachwear	shorts t-shirts tank tops flip flops sunglasses	shorts dresses cover-ups t-shirts tank tops flip flops sunglasses

* Another name for swimsuit is bathing suit. The name you use depends on where you live in the world.
