Let's Start!

Let's get a credit card!

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about money and banking.
- I can accept an offer.
- I can express possession.

Ask your partner:

- Do you have a credit card? Why or why not?
- Do you go into the bank often?

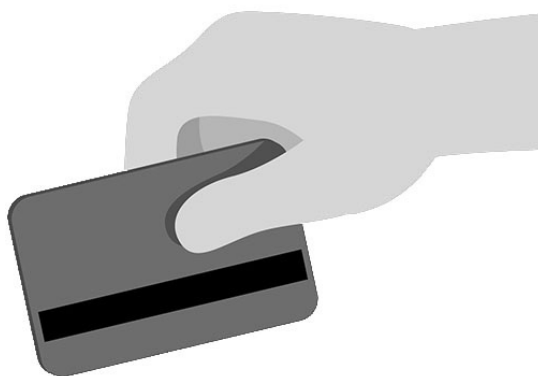

Let's Explore!

The bank teller offers Sally a credit card. Does she get it?

* A "credit card" is a card you use to buy things and pay later. There are different kinds of credit cards.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Bank Teller: Are you interested in getting our travel credit card?

Sally: Yes, I am. I would like to go to Europe.

Bank Teller: Fantastic. We have a card that is perfect for traveling. The AXIS.

Sally: Can I use it all over the world?

Bank Teller: Yes, you can use it in any part of the world. We have a promotion going on right now for all our customers. Would you like to apply for one?

Sally: Definitely!

Bank Teller: Great, so it looks like you're pre-approved.

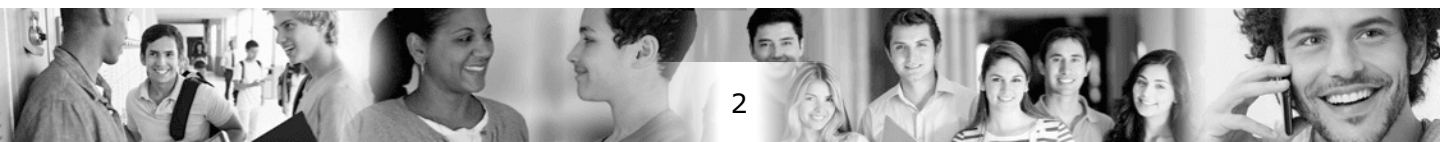

Sally: Okay. What's the interest rate on this card?

Bank Teller: It's 19.99%.

Sally: That seems high.

Bank Teller: Well, we can offer you another card. This may be a better fit for you. The interest rate is 11.99% and you get flyer miles every time you travel. Would you like to apply?

Sally: Yes, please.

Let's Practice!

Let's practice possessive adjectives!

Instructions: Match the pronoun with the sentence. Check off the correct box in the table.

	This is our car.	That is her brother.	His family is nice.	This is my book.	Can you give me your bag?	Their credit cards are popular.

Let's Practice!

Sally talks about her new credit card.

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing words. Use interest rate, all over the world, a better fit, pre-approved, flyer miles.

1. This is my new credit card, the AXIS. I was _____ because the bank was having a promotion.
2. It is _____ for me.
3. I can use it _____.
4. I can also get _____ when I travel.
5. The _____ is only 11.99%.

Learning Points

Possessive Adjectives

We use possessive adjectives to show who owns or "possesses" something. They come before the noun.

Example:

You have a bankbook. The bankbook is "possessed" by you. So, you can say: This is my bankbook. My comes before the noun which is bankbook.

Pronoun	Possessive Adjective	Example
I	My	This is my bankbook.
You	Your	Is this your account number?
He	His	This is his card.
She	Her	This is her credit card.
We	Our	Our bank is offering a promotion.
They	Their	Their credit cards don't offer this.
