Let's Start!

Let's look at a brochure! What's it about?

Learning Outcome:

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements:

- I can talk about money and banking.
- I can talk about travel.
- I can make and respond to suggestions.

Ask your partner:

- How do you keep your money safe when you travel?
- What would you suggest to your friend who wants to travel?

Let's Explore!

Sally has a *brochure for Vanessa. It has suggestions. What are they?

*A travel "brochure" tells you about places around the world.

Instructions: Read the dialogue aloud.

Sally: Hey, I picked up this brochure for you from the bank.

Vanessa: What's it about?

Sally: It's about keeping money safe when you travel.

Vanessa: Oh, that's perfect. Should we read it aloud?

Sally: Sure. Carry small amounts of currency only.

Vanessa: Okay, this is a good idea. I shouldn't take any large bills. Think about using a money belt or travel wallet. Oh! I have a travel wallet Mom gave me! Check.

Sally: Photocopy your passport and driver's licence.

Vanessa: Okay, I still need to do this.

Sally: Use the travel insurance provided by your credit card company.

Vanessa: Hmmm, I have to ask about this. Keep all credit card numbers handy.

Sally: You should write those down.

Vanessa: Don't leave valuables in your hotel room. That reminds me, I have to call the travel agent.

Let's Practice!

Let's make suggestions! What do you photocopy?

Instructions: Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in brackets.

- 1) _____ (Think/Don't/Carry) small amounts of currency only.
- 2) Don't _____ (take/think/copy) any large bills.
- 3) _____ (Think/Don't/Carry) about using a money belt or travel wallet.
- 4) _____ (Think/Don't/Photocopy) your passport and driver's licence.
- 5) _____ (Keep/Think/Use) the travel insurance provided by your credit card company.
- 6) _____ (Think/Find/Keep) all credit card numbers handy.
- 7) Don't _____ (leave/carry/think) valuables in your hotel room.

Let's Practice!

What is included in the brochure? Let's find out!

Instructions: Read the dialogue. Read the clues on the left. Check off the correct box in the table.

Learning Points

Making and Responding to Suggestions

You can use Imperatives or modals to make suggestions.

Using Imperatives is a casual way to make suggestions. To make the Imperative, you use the base form of the verb. You do not use a subject.

You can also use modals such as could and should to make suggestions.

You can respond to suggestions with different expressions.

Making Suggestions	Write it down. Read this. Sign here. You could write it down. You should bring it.
Responding to Suggestions	Sure. I'd love to! That/This is a good idea! Ok. Hmmm ...

Examples

Chelsea: Write it down.

Tom: That's a good idea.

Tom: OK.
